

Sayings of Sam Jones.

(In the S. S.)

Rev. Sam Jones, the Georgia evangelist, began talking in his characteristic way, some of his sentences being as follows:

"The pull to the parks, beer gardens, saloons and devilry is immense today, and I wonder it didn't get some of you."

"In Baltimore it is the habit of the decent people to dress up and go to church on Sunday morning, then go home and undress, take off religion until the next Sunday. These meetings are going to break the monotony, and that's no joke. No, sir."

"The committee of laymen are running Music Hall for these meetings, but, under God, I'll run my mouth! I'm running that!"

"The preachers sitting here wouldn't say what I do, and if I didn't say any more than they do I wouldn't be of any more account than they are." Then he turned to the preacher with a pleasant grin, while the audience laughed.

"I believe in three distinct powers," he said, "we have to do with in the mortal world—divine, satanic and human. I believe in a devil, a bad devil, a personal, powerful devil, as much as I believe in God. He is in Baltimore, and the man that doubts it must be deaf and dumb and blind and brainless."

"When divine power is coupled onto human power then we are omnipotent. When satanic power works together with human power we are almost an omnipotent force for evil."

"There are one hundred men in Baltimore allied with the devil who, if they should cut loose an ally with God and right, I could show you a city revolutionized in three weeks."

"Some people have resolved themselves into nothing. You are mighty nigh landed in that knot. Some want to be 'broken and empty pitchers,' not only broken, but burst."

"Many on the devil's side don't count for much. Most of you are barnacles in the ship of Zion; I don't know how you got on or why you don't come off."

"The devil can't run his machine without men. He doesn't distill whisky or sell it, and I am sure he never drank it. He gets some scoundrel to make whisky, an infernal rascal to sell it and an infernal fool to drink it; then his work goes on."

"I have as much respect for the white-aproned scoundrel that sells whisky as for the Presbyterian or Methodist woman who dishes out damnation from a cutglass punch bowl."

"I have more sympathy for the gambler who is arrested while trying to make money for his family than the woman who gambles for a cutglass vase at a progressive euchre party."

A Life And Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble which ended in Consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery which wholly cured me. Hundreds have used it on my advice and all say it never fails to cure Throat, Chest and Lung troubles." Regular size 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at W. E. Paull's Drug Store.

Capt. W. T. Cooper, eighty-nine years old, one of the South's best known artists, was struck by an electric car while attempting to avoid being run over by an automobile and sustained injuries from which he soon died.

Population of United States.

We have a population now of nearly seventy five millions. We have grown in wealth more rapidly than any modern nation. Our population has multiplied without precedent for the past hundred years. But our wealth has increased much faster. Yet, strange to say, as a wealth increases, the proportionate number of those who have control of it decreases.

About 25,000 persons in this country now own about one-half of the wealth. That is, one person owns $10,000 for every 3,000 persons that own $1 each; or, one person owns $300,000 for every 3,000 persons that own $100 each. Or, to put this in another form—about one person in each seventy-five owns twice as much as all the other seventy-five. That is, one seventy-fifth of our people own two-thirds of all our wealth. One million citizens own twice as much as the other seventy-five millions. The force of this can be more fully seen when we consider that, a generation ago, or forty years ago, before the civil war, there were not more than ten persons in this country that were millionaires; now there are not less than ten thousand who control or count as their own a million dollars or more each. Most of them have from one to twenty millions, but there are about twenty persons who own fifty millions or more each. These colossal fortunes were made very largely within the last generation, and inheritance had very little to do with but few of them. So the question is, how were they amassed? As for the future question, has the body politic received an equivalent in service and wealth for these millions? —Rev. J. H. Keeley.

Night in the Holy City.

Jerusalem has neither street lamps, policemen, postmen nor newspapers; people who go out at night are ordered to carry lanterns under a heavy penalty. The keeping of three successive Sundays—Mohamedan, Jewish and Christian—leads to much loss of time, for the lazily disposed observe all three. Night in the Holy Land is a thing to be remembered. The air is soft and balmy, neither hot nor cold; the sun setting like a globe of ember, tinges the top of the blue vapor which ever hangs over the Moabite Mountains and Dead Sea with iridescent tints. The sky is literally powdered with stars, not gleaming as they do on a frosty night in the North, but soft and dreamy.

Nervous Prostration.

I had nervous trouble for years, which at times completely prostrated me and made life not worth living. I tried many physicians and no end of nerve and other remedies without relief. Mr. M. J. Crews, merchant, Ma-loy, Iowa, persuaded me to try Morley's Sarsaparilla and Iron. The very first bottle went to the right spot, for I felt a complete change and now, after using six bottles in all I am perfectly well. Mrs. LITTLE FISHER. Sold by W. M. Bell, Jopka, Ky.

The Methodist General Conference voted down a resolution to so change the church discipline as to permit the licensing of women as local preachers and exhorters.

A FOLLOWER OF MEASLES.—In many instances a persistent cough follows an attack of measles. In speaking of this Mr. Walter B. Beel, editor of the Elkin (N. C.) Times, says: "Three weeks ago I had an attack of measles which left me with a bad cough. I took several doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the cough has entirely disappeared. I consider Chamberlain's medicines the best on the market." For sale by M. Cravens.

In Morgan county Bernard Lewis shot and killed Joseph Lyons.

Chronic Sore Leg.

Mr. J. Richardson had a running sore on his leg for 20 years. Tried doctors and medicines without end or any permanent good. Mr. L. B. Nunnally, druggist, Hartford, Ia., recommended Morley's Sarsaparilla and Iron to cure the cause of the sore and make it heal from the inside. A few bottles cured my leg, and put me in better health than I have been for 20 years. Sold by W. M. Bell, Jopka, Ky.

A Monster Devil Fish

Destroying its victim, is a type of Constipation. The power of this remedy is felt on organs, nerves, muscles and brain. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a certain and safe cure. Best in the world for Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels. Only 25 cents, at T. E. Paull's Drug Store.

The Republicans of Marion county seem lost to all sense of honor; truth or shame. Their resolutions endorsing Taylor and the miserable crowd of assassins are a little more infamous than any we have read, and when they say that there "has not been adduced one scintilla of evidence connecting any of the Republican State officials, or other Republicans, with the murder of Goebel," they utter so patent a falsehood that it is hardly necessary to comment on it. The man or set of men, who can recall all the circumstances connected with the assassination before and after can understand the meaning of the direct testimony given at the trials of the suspects for bail, and then say no "scintilla of evidence has been adduced" to connect the Republican State officials, or other Republicans with the crime, are either so blindly partisan that they would not believe though one arose from the dead, or lie knowingly, wickedly and maliciously. —Stanford Journal.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, L. T. He writes: "Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face and the best doctors could give no help but now her health is excellent." Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50c. Sold by T. E. Paull, druggist. Guaranteed.

An Epidemic, Whooping Cough.

Last winter during an epidemic of whooping cough my children contracted the disease, having severe coughing spells. We had used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy very successfully for croup and naturally turned to it at that time and found it relieved the cough and effected a complete cure.—JOHN E. CLIFFORD, Proprietor, Norwood House, Norwood, N. Y. This remedy is for sale by M. Cravens.

Two Strikes, an aged Sioux chief, who is said to have taken many a pale-face scalp, has been baptized into the Catholic faith.

The ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon within a man. Any one who has had an attack of sciatic or inflammatory rheumatism will agree that the infliction is demoniac enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure rheumatism, and hundreds bear testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. For sale by M. Cravens.

Twenty members of the Forty-third regiment of Americans at the garrison of Batubig, Island of Samar, were killed by rebels.

I consider it not only a pleasure but a duty I owe to my neighbors to tell about the wonderful cure effected in my case by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I was taken very badly with flux and procured a bottle of this remedy. A few doses of it effected a permanent cure. I take pleasure in recommending it to others suffering from that dreadful disease.—J. W. LYNCH, Dorr, W. Va. This remedy is for sale by M. Cravens.

Gradyville Fine Stock Stables, Gradyville, Kentucky.

This beautiful stallion, Jordan Peacock, will make the present season at my stable in Gradyville, Kentucky, at the low price of $10.00 to insure a living colt. Money due when colt is foaled, or mare traded or removed from the next breeding.

JORDAN PEACOCK.

Register No. 1148, Vol. 73. Is certified that W. L. Grady, Gradyville, Ky., is registered in the National Saddle Horse Breeders Association of Louisville, Ky., as the bay stallion, Jordan Peacock, foaled July 1891. Marked, Star snip and two white feet, gait, certified.

Jordan Peacock, No. 1148, is a beautiful bay, 15½ hands, due large water spout tail. Was sired by the greatest of all show stallions in Kentucky, Peacock, No. 499, he by Blue Jeans, No. 3, sired by Phillip's Black Horse, he by Gen. Taylor, sired by Imported Hooten, thoroughbred, Jordan's first dam, Lena Rivers, No. 720, sired by Cabell's Lexington, he by Gist's Black Hawk, he by Blood's Black Hawk, Imported. Jordan's second dam by Lizzie Jordan, she by Wilson's Lewis's Jordan, he by Imported Jordan, out of Imported Patena. Jordan's third dam by Imported Waggoner.

In Jordan Peacock you will find the finest style and action and the finish of a thoroughbred of which he is closely backed on both sides. As a show horse he stands without a rival, defeating some of the very best horses that ever entered a ring, among them were Monte Cristo Jr., Thornton's Star, Jane Carter, Highland Denmark, Dignity Dare, a noted horse of the Blue Grass, one of the best some of Chester Dare, and others too numerous to mention. He has been shown in the best fairs in Kentucky and Tennessee and never met a horse that he did not defeat.

As a breeder he has no superior. To prove this his colts are wearing the blues over the best stallions in the State. Quite a number of his colts have sold at fancy price. He imparts to his offspring that kind disposition which he himself possesses and which is one of the best features that make a good animal. In size, style and combined features there is not a horse in existence better adapted to meet the demands of every body.

HAZLEWOOD.

Hazlewood is a Chestnut Sorrel 16½ hands. Was sired by Nutwood, 10, 35, he by Nutwood 6, record 2:18½. Nutwood sold for $2,800 when twenty-four years old, and was the sire of Belmont Boy, 21, and 53 more with records better than 2:30. Hazlewood's first dam was by Rich Allen, he by Mambrino Chief, 11, he by Mambrino Paymaster, he by Imported Messenger.

His fine h. res. will serve mares at a price to suit the times to insure a living colt.

GOV. ST. JOHN

His fine Jack will make the present season at $7.50 to insure a mare with foal, money due when a fact is ascertained or mare traded or removed.

My fine Jack, JO, will make the season at the same place at $6.00 on same terms as above. Mr. J. A. Diddle sold, last fall, two yearling mules by Gov. St. John for $7.50 each. If you want the best breed to the best. You will find them at Gradyville.

Cures Effected by G. F. P.

(Gerstle's Female Panacea.)

One Bottle Cured Where Physician Failed.

I sold your G. F. P. to a young lady customer whom my physician had given up as hopeless, and told her if it did her no good she need not pay for it. After taking one bottle she was entirely cured and has been in good health ever since. J. R. GILLILAND, Moore's Bridge, Ala.

Health Restored.

I was weak and in very bad health and unable to do my work. I used one bottle of G. F. P. and it did me more good than anything I ever used. I am now in good health and can do my work. Mrs. S. E. CHANDLER, Gin. Ark.

Tumor Removed.

The wife of one of my customers was so badly afflicted with tumor of the womb that she was unable to go about. After using three bottles of G. F. P. the tumor was expelled. J. R. GILLILAND, Moore's Bridge, Ala.

Suffered from Change of Life.

My wife was sick for seven years, suffering from the change of life. We tried everything we could get from the doctors and paid out a considerable sum for treatment without any good result. We then began using G. F. P. and it did more good than all else we had used for six years. It is the greatest remedy for suffering males ever placed on the market.
